

Permit Brief – DLNR-DOFAW-NES-3
Threatened and Endangered (T&E) Plant Permit
Hawaii Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR)
Division of Forestry and Wildlife (DOFAW)
Native Ecosystem Section

Reason for Approval/Permit: To conduct research/activities with Threatened and/or Endangered plant species on Non-Federal lands

References: Chapter 195 Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS); Chapters 13-104, 13-107, and 13-124 Hawaii Administrative Rules (HAR)

Fees: None

Permit Prerequisite(s): None

Website: <http://hawaii.gov/dlnr/dofaw/rareplants/rareplantprogram>

Checklist	Estimated Time
1. Applicant submits Application for Research/Collection/Possession Permit For Threatened & Endangered Plant Species.
2. DOFAW reviews application for completeness and accepts application if complete. T&E Plant Permit Applications are reviewed by DOFAW Staff and other botanical experts.
3. DOFAW issues approval (with conditions) or denial of application.	90 days from Application Acceptance
Total Estimated Time from Application Acceptance	90 days