Dear Mr. Merz,

I sent two comments yesterday (March 1) but unfortunately did not put the dash between Hirep and wind in your email address. Thus they didn't reach you on March 1, although they were sent about 8:30 pm on March 1. Can you please include them? Here is the message from my email server:

RE: The HIREP EIS

Please respond to the following questions:

1. Will the project depend on Eminent Domain for implementation if it is rejected by the residents of Maui, Lanai, or Molokai?
2. Is there an impact of such Eminent Domain use in forcing projects into a community against its will?
