Informing the students through virtual field trips and tutorials posted on Facebook and Instagram. The Kōkua Hawai'i Foundation, a nonprofit that supports environmental education in the schools Hawaiian Electric the COVID-19 crisis - person workshops in Hawaii and elsewhere, said it has moved many of its resources online during the pandemic has illustrated to me the critical importance of the HSEO outreach to businesses and secures internal agency operations. The pandemic has strengthened our assurance for our state. As the lead agency responsible for state Emergency Support Function 12 A:...